REPORT

I was saddened to hear of the recent passing of Anastasios “Tasio” Tsirekas, the father of former Mayor Angelo Tsirekas.

Tasio migrated from Greece, with his young family, in the early 1960s, making a life in Sydney’s inner-west. He was a hardworking and devoted father, who had an, understandably, big influence on Angelo.

I ask Council to join me in offering our sincere and heartfelt condolences to Angelo, his mother Tasia and sister Joan and their families, at this difficult time.

RECOMMENDATION

THAT Council receive and note the report.
